

Gregory J. Olinde background

He is senior vice president of Bay Bank in Salisbury, starting this position in 2011 after serving as senior vice president and regional director of Bay National Bank since 2002 and then joining the Bank of the Eastern Shore in Cambridge. He has more than 17 years in the banking industry.

Prior to joining Bank National Bank, he was the retail marketing manager for Cato Gas and Oil and the vice president of Mercantile Peninsula Bank, successor by merger, to the Bank of Fruitland.

Greg earned a BS degree in chemistry from the Henson School of Science in 1990 and a MBA from the Perdue School of Business in 1992, both from Salisbury University. He is a graduate of the RMA Commercial Lending School and the Maryland Bankers School.

He currently is a trustee for the Richard A. Henson Foundation and has been the president of the Fruitland City Council, a board member of the Fruitland Chamber of Commerce and of the Fruitland Economic Development Commission.

He and his wife have three children and reside in Fruitland.